Webinar: Business and the Post 2015 Development Agenda

The UN Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) will expire in 2015, and the debate on what should follow them is underway. Many businesses are seeing business opportunities in addressing development issues, but for businesses to be seen as key players and part of the solution they need to engage in the Post 2015 development debate. BITC, amongst others, is convening business voice on this agenda. Sign up to this webinar in order to:

- Learn more about UN Post 2015 process, why it is important for business and how business can engage with it
- Hear some key messages from the research to date
- Hear from companies including Unilever and GSK

Cost: No charge for BITC members. £50+VAT for non-members

Date: 9 May 2013

Time: 14:00 to 15:00 (BST)

If you would like attend the webinar or contribute to the research, please contact clare.jenkinson@bitc.org.uk
